Comments	you came back from the day program and were straight in her room. She came out of the room with someone, staff asked her what the problem was as it seems she was looking for something. She did not respond. all she did was come, hear staff, slam the door, disorganized her room, threw some of her things in the living room. Monitors... she hit her really hard and this entire exchange of words and hearings. We call down the stairs than as heard and started again. At this time Ms. Tr welcomed this.
